The first rendez-vous
dedicated to collaborations,
unique pieces and limited
editions.

Paris,
Jardin des Tuileries

October, 2nd to 5th 2026

Fashion is a culture.

Here, creation is listened to, felt, and shared.

Designers, artisans, institutions, collectors—all gathered to celebrate fashion as a living art.

JILL is not a trade show. It's an immersive and collective experience. A suspended moment, where Paris becomes the stage for creation. Four days to see, feel, understand, and celebrate.

An immersive, poetic scenography by Jean-Baptiste Fastrez.

JILL a place to stroll, chat, and discover—where experience blends seamlessly with discovery and shopping. Taking place from Friday, October 2nd to Monday, October 5th, 2026, an iconic location will be transformed into a temporary home of creativity. Between the Louvre and the Seine, JILL is situated in the very heart of fashion.

"A new extraordinary adventure in Paris, within WSN, after 40 years of festivals, supporting young designers and a total passion for fashion.

JILL! The iconic magazine from my early days in 1983, conceived and created by the equally iconic, I mean the extraordinary Babeth Djian.

It has now become a new fashion event in Paris during Paris Fashion Week, every year in October: a time of creativity dedicated to buyers, professionals, collectors, journalists, fashion enthusiasts, students, artisans, artists and the public, who are all welcome at JILL House."
Jean-Pierre Blanc, art director of JILL

"I am delighted with the launch of JILL, which provides a new gateway to creativity within Premiere Classe. We make it a point of honour to explore new territories and bring different communities together. JILL will offer visitors new creative ideas in line with consumer desires."
Frédéric Maus, CEO WSN

"Following on from the Parisian highlights it accompanies, the Project Room (rue de Bellechasse) will launch a programme outside the walls of the new JILL salon, dedicated to fashion and design, at the beginning of October!"
